

BACHELOR OF APPLIED SCIENCE IN LEADERSHIP

---

Admission Requirements for Bachelor of Applied Science in Leadership

- Completion of an Associate in Arts (A.A.) from an institution that has received their institutional accreditation from an agency authorized by the U.S. Department of Education, or
- Associate in Science (A.S.) degree, including a minimum of 15 semester credit hours of LSSC's current General Education core requirements from an institution that has received their institutional accreditation from an agency authorized by the U.S. Department of Education, or
- Students who have completed equivalent coursework from an institution that has received their institutional accreditation from an agency authorized by the U.S. Department of Education with a minimum of 60 transferable semester credit hours, including 18 semester credit hours of LSSC's current General Education core requirements, will be considered on a case-by-case basis, but may require additional coursework prior to acceptance into a baccalaureate degree program.
- Completion of all developmental (college preparatory) coursework as required by placement testing.
- Eligibility for Gordon Rule mathematics courses through placement testing or the successful completion of required prerequisite coursework.
- Minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale in all post-secondary coursework.

Note: Courses transferred from other institutions must be formally evaluated for currency and equivalency credit.

- Related upper-division (3000-4000 level) coursework and supporting documentation must be reviewed for consideration of meeting program requirements and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The student is responsible for providing course descriptions and any additional supporting documentation requested in order to make this determination. All course substitutions must be approved in writing by the AVP of Workforce Development.
- For coursework taken at post-secondary institutions outside the United States, see Evaluating Coursework from International Institutions in this catalog.