

LSSC STUDENT IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

After submitting an application for admission to LSSC, students are issued an LSSC student identification number (X#ID). This number consists of an "X" followed by eight digits and is used to access and identify all permanent academic records, including transcripts, course registration, grade reports, enrollment certifications, student account information, and more.