

CJJ-JUVENILE JUSTICE

CJJ 2002 Juvenile Delinquency (3 Credits)

This course will consider the problems in defining and measuring delinquency in American society. The course will cover the causal theories of delinquency, the law enforcement role, the juvenile court process, and the social and cultural influences involved in defining delinquency.

Prerequisite: CCJ 1020 or documented consent of instructor