

REL-RELIGION

REL 2300 World Religions (3 Credits)

World religions is a survey of the origins, beliefs, and contemporary practices of the world's religions: Hinduism, Islam, Jainism, Taoism, Shinto, Sikhism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity and Confucianism. Attention is given to the interactions between specific religions and the cultures in which they are practiced.

General Education, Area II: Humanities